

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Today, Congressman John Olver introduced a bill to recognize Pittsfield, Massac

Congressman John Olver said, "Baseball has been a part of Pittsfield's history since the very beginning.

"I would like thank Congressman Olver for bringing this resolution to the floor of the House of Represent

The city of Pittsfield was settled in 1752, and incorporated in 1761.

In 1791, the Town of Pittsfield passed a bylaw during a town meeting that prohibits playing baseball with

In 1859, the first inter-collegiate baseball game was played at North St. and Maplewood Ave. in Pittsfield

The resolution was introduced with 26 original co-sponsors, including the members of the Massachusett

###

